

Dale E. Brown, CAE is Executive Director & CEO of the Financial Services Institute, Voice of Independent Broker-Dealers and Independent Financial Advisors. Dale brings almost 20 years of experience to the Institute and leadership in government relations and constituent advocacy. He leads FSI's advocacy strategy and relationships with regulators and policymakers in Washington. Prior to joining FSI at its launch, Dale was a senior executive with FPA and IAFP. He attended the University of Georgia and graduated from Georgia State University with a bachelor's degree in political science. Dale, his wife and four children live in Kennesaw, GA.